

OAH062- INTRODUCTION TO LITERATURE

Credit Hours: 3 Semester Hours
Pre-Requisite: At least remediation free placement
Related TAG: English
General Course Description: Introduction to literary and textual study with attention to various forms of fiction, creative nonfiction, drama, poetry, and to essential literary terminology and practice.
Student Learning Outcomes marked with an asterisk (*) are considered essential and must be covered:
Learning outcomes 1. Define and identify essential characteristics of various genres and literary texts. *
Learning outcome 2. Explain how particular texts function as examples of particular genres. *
Learning outcome 3. Analyze texts with reference to literary terminology. *
Learning outcome 4. Create original interpretations of texts from multiple genres. *

OAH063- MULTICULTURAL LITERATURE

Credit Hours: 3 Semester Hours
Pre-Requisite: At least remediation free placement
Related TAG: English
General Course Description: Through the use of selected texts, students will become familiar with authors from a variety of cultures to include literature from at least three Non- Western cultures.
Student Learning Outcomes marked with an asterisk (*) are considered essential and must be covered:
Learning outcomes 1. Define and explain the ways in which diverse cultures have shaped and continue to shape literature.*
Learning outcomes 2. Analyze texts in light of the perspectives of diverse cultures.*
Learning outcomes 3. Create original interpretations of texts that relate them to the context of their culture of origin.*